If Adams Wins, "Sunshine" Gets 5 Min. in Ring With "Precious"

"Gentleman" Chris Adams Renews Rivalry With "Gorgeous" Jimmy Garvin Friday, May 11 at Kiel

"GENTLEMAN" CHRIS ADAMS AND "SUNSHINE"

Professional wrestling's hottest feud resumes in the main event of the power-packed St. Louis Wrestling Club card at Kiel Auditorium Friday, May 11.

The bitter rivalry between "Gorgeous" Jimmy Garvin and "Gentleman" Chris Adams started in Texas, where both wrestlers are main event stars on "World Class Championship Wrestling" (seen in St. Louis over KDNL-TV Channel 30 Sundays at 10:00 AM). An intense rivalry knows no borders and this is evident in two recent battles between Garvin and Adams in St. Louis.

"Gorgeous" Jimmy defeated "Gentleman" Chris March 30 at Kiel. Adams had the upper hand throughout most of the match, and many feel that Chris would have been victorious had it not been for outside interference from Garvin's controversial valet, "Precious". When Adams tried to finish off Garvin with a suplex, "Precious" reached through the ropes and tripped Chris. Garvin landed on top of Adams and held him down for the pin. In their April 13 rematch, Adams was accompanied by Garvin's ex-valet "Sunshine". During the action-packed donnybrook, "Sunshine" kept a close eye on "Precious". When "Precious" attempted to interfere in the action, "Sun-

Lumberjack Match Sends "Black Jack" Lanza Against Ken Patera

"BLACK JACK" LANZA

KEN PATERA

Rugged "Black Jack" Lanza locks horns with powerful Ken Patera in a unique Lumberjack Match Friday, May 11 at Kiel Auditorium.

Lanza and Patera were involved in a bruising fracas April 13 at Kiel. Both men were disqualified when counted out of the ring. When Lanza and Patera asked Matchmaker Pat O'Connor for a rematch, O'Connor suggested, and both wrestlers agreed to, a Lumberjack Match.

In this match, the ring will be surrounded by wrestlers who will serve as the "Lumberjacks". If either combatant should exit the ring (either willingly or by being tossed out), the "Lumberjacks" will immediately throw him back inside the squared circle. Regular rules will be in effect for the one fall match. There will be no "20-count" outside the ring, however, because neither combatant will have a chance to spend that much time on the auditorium floor.

The Lumberjack Match between "Black Jack" Lanza and Ken Patera promises to add a unique brand of excitement to the superb St. Louis Wrestling Club slate at Kiel Friday, May 11.

"Grapplers" Risk Winning Streak Against "High Flyers"

In tag team competition, the "Grapplers" are undefeated in St. Louis. The masked duo face what is perhaps the toughest test of their victory streak when they oppose Greg Gagne and "Jumping" Jim Brunzell at Kiel Auditorium Friday, May 11.

Gagne and Brunzell are known around the mat world as the "High Flyers" thanks to their ability to execute sensational acrobatic maneuvers in the ring. Both these stars have a solid background in amateur wrestling. On the professional side, the "High Flyers" are a proven tag team combination. They are past owners of the A.W.A. tag team championship. Whether in a singles match or in a tag team affair, Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell are both talented, capable competitors.

The "Grapplers" are a turbulent twosome who are not afraid of stiff competition, even when the opponents have the impressive credentials that belong to Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell.

Considering the accomplishments of the "Grapplers" and the "High Flyers", a sizzling tag team battle can be expected Friday, May 11 at Kiel.

shine" quickly chased her away and Adams was able to score a pin over Garvin.

Whether in Texas, in St. Louis, or any other place that Jimmy Garvin appears, "Precious" has repeatedly attempted to help Garvin by interfering in his bouts. The behavior of "Precious" has continued, though, because the clever valet usually manages to accomplish her task at the precise moment when the referee's attention is directed at the action in the ring.

Chris Adams and "Sunshine" are obviously frustrated with Jim Garvin and "Precious" and their unsportsmanlike conduct. Thus, Adams and "Sunshine" both insisted on a special condition before Chris would sign for another rematch with Garvin. That proposal, which Jimmy Garvin has agreed to, states that if Chris Adams defeats Jimmy Garvin on May 11, then "Sunshine" immediately gets five minutes alone in the ring with "Precious".

Whenever "Gorgeous" Jimmy Garvin and "Gentleman" Chris Adams square off, a hot-and-heavy skirmish is guaranteed. With the possibility of a clash between "Sunshine" and "Precious" on Friday, May 11 at Kiel, the Garvin-Adams encounter that night could be the wildest collision yet in their memorable wrestling war.

AT RINGSIDE

WITH PAT O'CONNOR

Flair to Defend Gold Belt June 1

''Nature Boy'' Ric Flair has signed to defend the World Heavyweight Championship in the main event of the next big St. Louis Wrestling Club card, scheduled for Friday, June 1 at Kiel Auditorium. Choosing a challenger for the flamboyant Flair will be no easy task, for a number of top stars have moved into contention for a shot at Flair and the gold belt. Among the wrestlers under consideration for a crack at Flair on June 1 are Missouri State Champion Harley Race, Barry Windham, Wahoo McDaniel, Kerry Von Erich, ''Crusher'' Blackwell, Ken Patera and ''Black Jack'' Lanza.

IN THE NEWS.....''Hacksaw'' Duggan made quite an impression in his St. Louis debut March 30. Duggan is expected to sign soon for a return engagement in the Gateway City.....Negotiations are underway with members of the ''Fabulous Freebirds'' for an appearance in St. Louis this summer. A good possibility exists that either Michael Hayes, Terry Gordy or Buddy Roberts will star on a St. Louis Wrestling Club card in the near future.....St. Louis' own ''Iceman'' King Parsons is interested in returning here soon.

McDaniel, Windham Combine To Test Race, Blackwell

Tough Wahoo McDaniel joins forces with popular Barry Windham as they battle 471-pound "Crusher" Blackwell and Missouri State Champion Harley Race in a tag team contest Friday, May 11 at Kiel Auditorium.

The Race-Blackwell partnership comes as a bit of a surprise when one considers the bad blood that has existed between these two in the past. In fact, Race began his fifth reign as state kingpin by beating the massive Blackwell May 13, 1983.

As mentioned, Blackwell is a former Missouri State titleholder. He is presently co-holder of the A.W.A. tag team honor (along with partner Ken Patera). Harley Race is in the midst of a record sixth reign as state ruler. Race is also the only wrestler in history to have owned the N.W.A. world laurels on seven separate occasions. Obviously, if Race and Blackwell can blend their skills and work together, they have the potential to be an awesome tag team duo.

Wahoo McDaniel is still hot on the heels of Race and the state crown. McDaniel lost a hard-fought struggle to Race March 30, and Wahoo would like nothing better that to pin Harley in the May 11 tag team scuffle. This, McDaniel reasons, would virtually force Race into another title defense. Barry Windham is a top contender for both the World Heavyweight and Missouri State titles. The agile Windham gave World Champion Ric Flair all he could handle before a leg injury forced Barry to bow out of his thrilling title skirmish with Flair February 17. Thus, a good showing in the May 11 tag team match would boost Windham's chances for a rematch with Flair or a shot at Race and the state honor.

Wahoo McDaniel, Barry Windham, "Crusher" Blackwell and Harley Race are all established stars in the mat world. When McDaniel and Windham tangle with Blackwell and Race at Kiel May 11, each man has a great deal to gain and maybe even more to lose.
